

UC Help to Claim radio script

Version 1: England no phone number.

If you're not working at the moment or your income has reduced, Universal Credit and other benefits could provide financial support.

You can also get government-funded independent advice on whether Universal Credit is right for you from Citizens Advice 'Help to Claim' advisers.

The advice is free and confidential and will help you work out what support you could get.

Visit Gov.uk/Help to Claim

Eligibility criteria apply.

Version 2: England including phone number.

If you're not working at the moment or your income has reduced, Universal Credit and other benefits could provide financial support.

You can also get government-funded independent advice on whether Universal Credit is right for you from Citizens Advice 'Help to Claim' advisers.

It is free and confidential and will help you work out what support you could get.

Visit Gov.uk/Help to Claim or call 0800 144 8 444

Eligibility criteria apply.

If you're not working at the moment or your income has reduced, Universal Credit and other benefits could provide financial support.

You can also get government-funded independent advice on whether Universal Credit is right for you from Citizen's Advice Scotland 'Help to Claim' advisers.

The advice is free and confidential and will help you work out what support you could get.

Visit Gov.uk/Help to Claim or call 08000 232 581

Eligibility criteria apply.